People. They're not letting us see the truth. Remember this is a "peaceful protest". I just saw a helicopter feed in LA where they had set the forest on fire. 30 seconds after the helicopter cam caught it they cut the feed. 911 channel on Twitter was wiped of all the violence vids. They're censoring it. People were catching on to the violence too quick.

theres loads of money in activism works if the whistleblowers from 2016 are to be believed so i can believe the 30/hr plus a lot more but its all corrupt to fuck, not many you will see at a protest are even being paid, not even all the ones taking directions will be getting paid and especially not the ones breaking the law.
theres no way to qualify or apply for it, they keep these things close within their little networks.
ive got close to a few different shill groups in the crypto world back in 2017 that panned out enough forme to buy early and sell higher but i was never close to the core of the operations.

because systematic racism isn't just specific to the United States even countries that have never had slavery experience systematic racism even countries where whites are minorities, have systematic racism it's not just about 1 cop, and 1 jogger in Minneapolis.
it's about all of us. we're all in this together.
we need to dismantle the system, and the police departments all around the world. only then will we truly know what it's like to be free.
and the only thing stopping us is the evil drumpfler

It's the new cool thing to do. A month from now, it'll be some new shit. Last month, it was wearing masks. Today, I went out and more than half of the people walking around didn't have masks on - in a blue area. You obviously don't understand the mind of a normie if you can't understand why they get wrapped up in snowballs. People are sheep.

Social shaming. I've experienced it myself, they just assume you support it, and if you go against it everyone turns on you in an instant and gives you looks of disgust.

When you are susceptible to this tactic it makes you think you agree with them, not just that you are afraid of being ostracized. Luckily I'm not susceptible to it.

Past precedent. BLM's funding in 2016 fell off a cliff after they started making public statements against Israel.

Not sure why Soros would give a shit about that when OSF gives Palestinian groups money, but touching anything to do with Jews seems to be verboten for BLM.

Virtue signalling

look at your normiebook by the number of "white ally"posters versus the total number of friends. It's minuscule, but it's trending via algorithm. The problem is this is breeding a massive hidden resentment because people can't speak their mind. Everyone silent right now is anti protest and probably starting to feel pretty anti jogger. That anger doesn't get turned into a facebook post, it gets turned into a private conversation with their actual friendgroup. It gets turned into a vote in november.

COVID was a mind control virus. Gene therapy to make people hypnotizable. That's why for the last few months the NPCs have seemed so exceptionally programmable - because they are. At this point literally all they have to do is flick a switch, and the programming is immediately updated.

This is the philosophical zombie apocalypse.
